

I Stare Oblivion

a children's horror

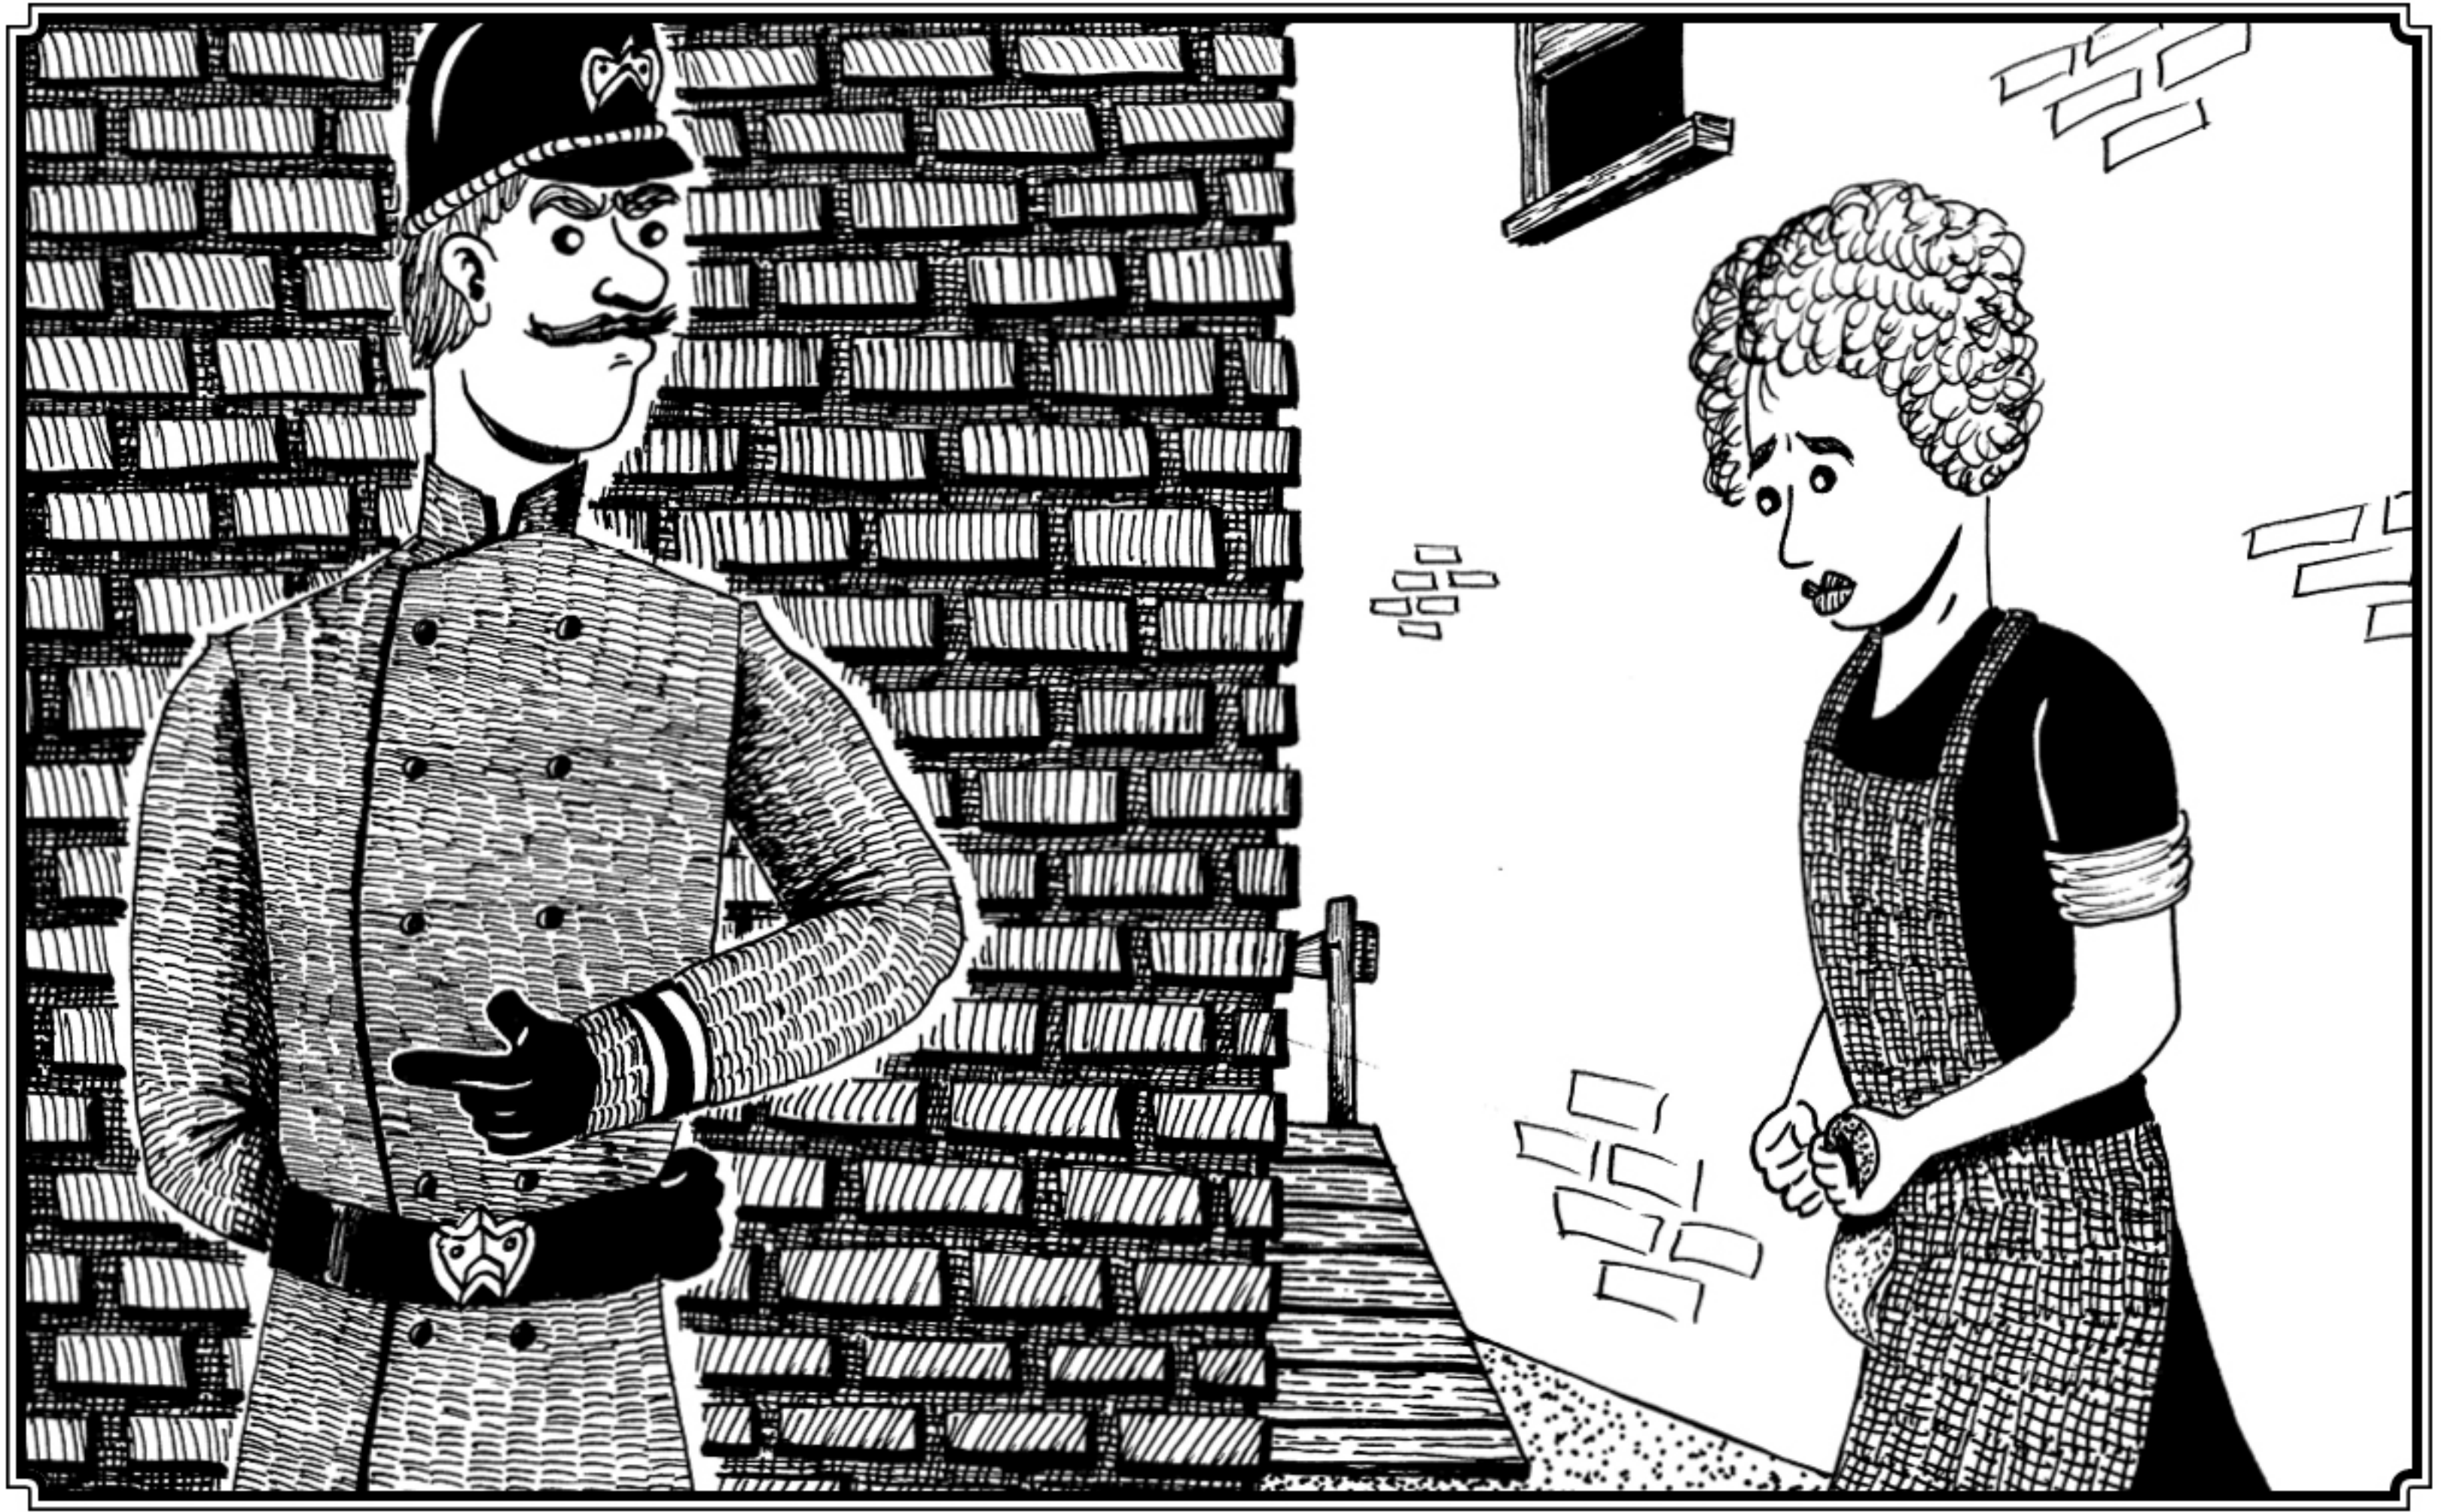

by Neb Resik

Baby is missing.

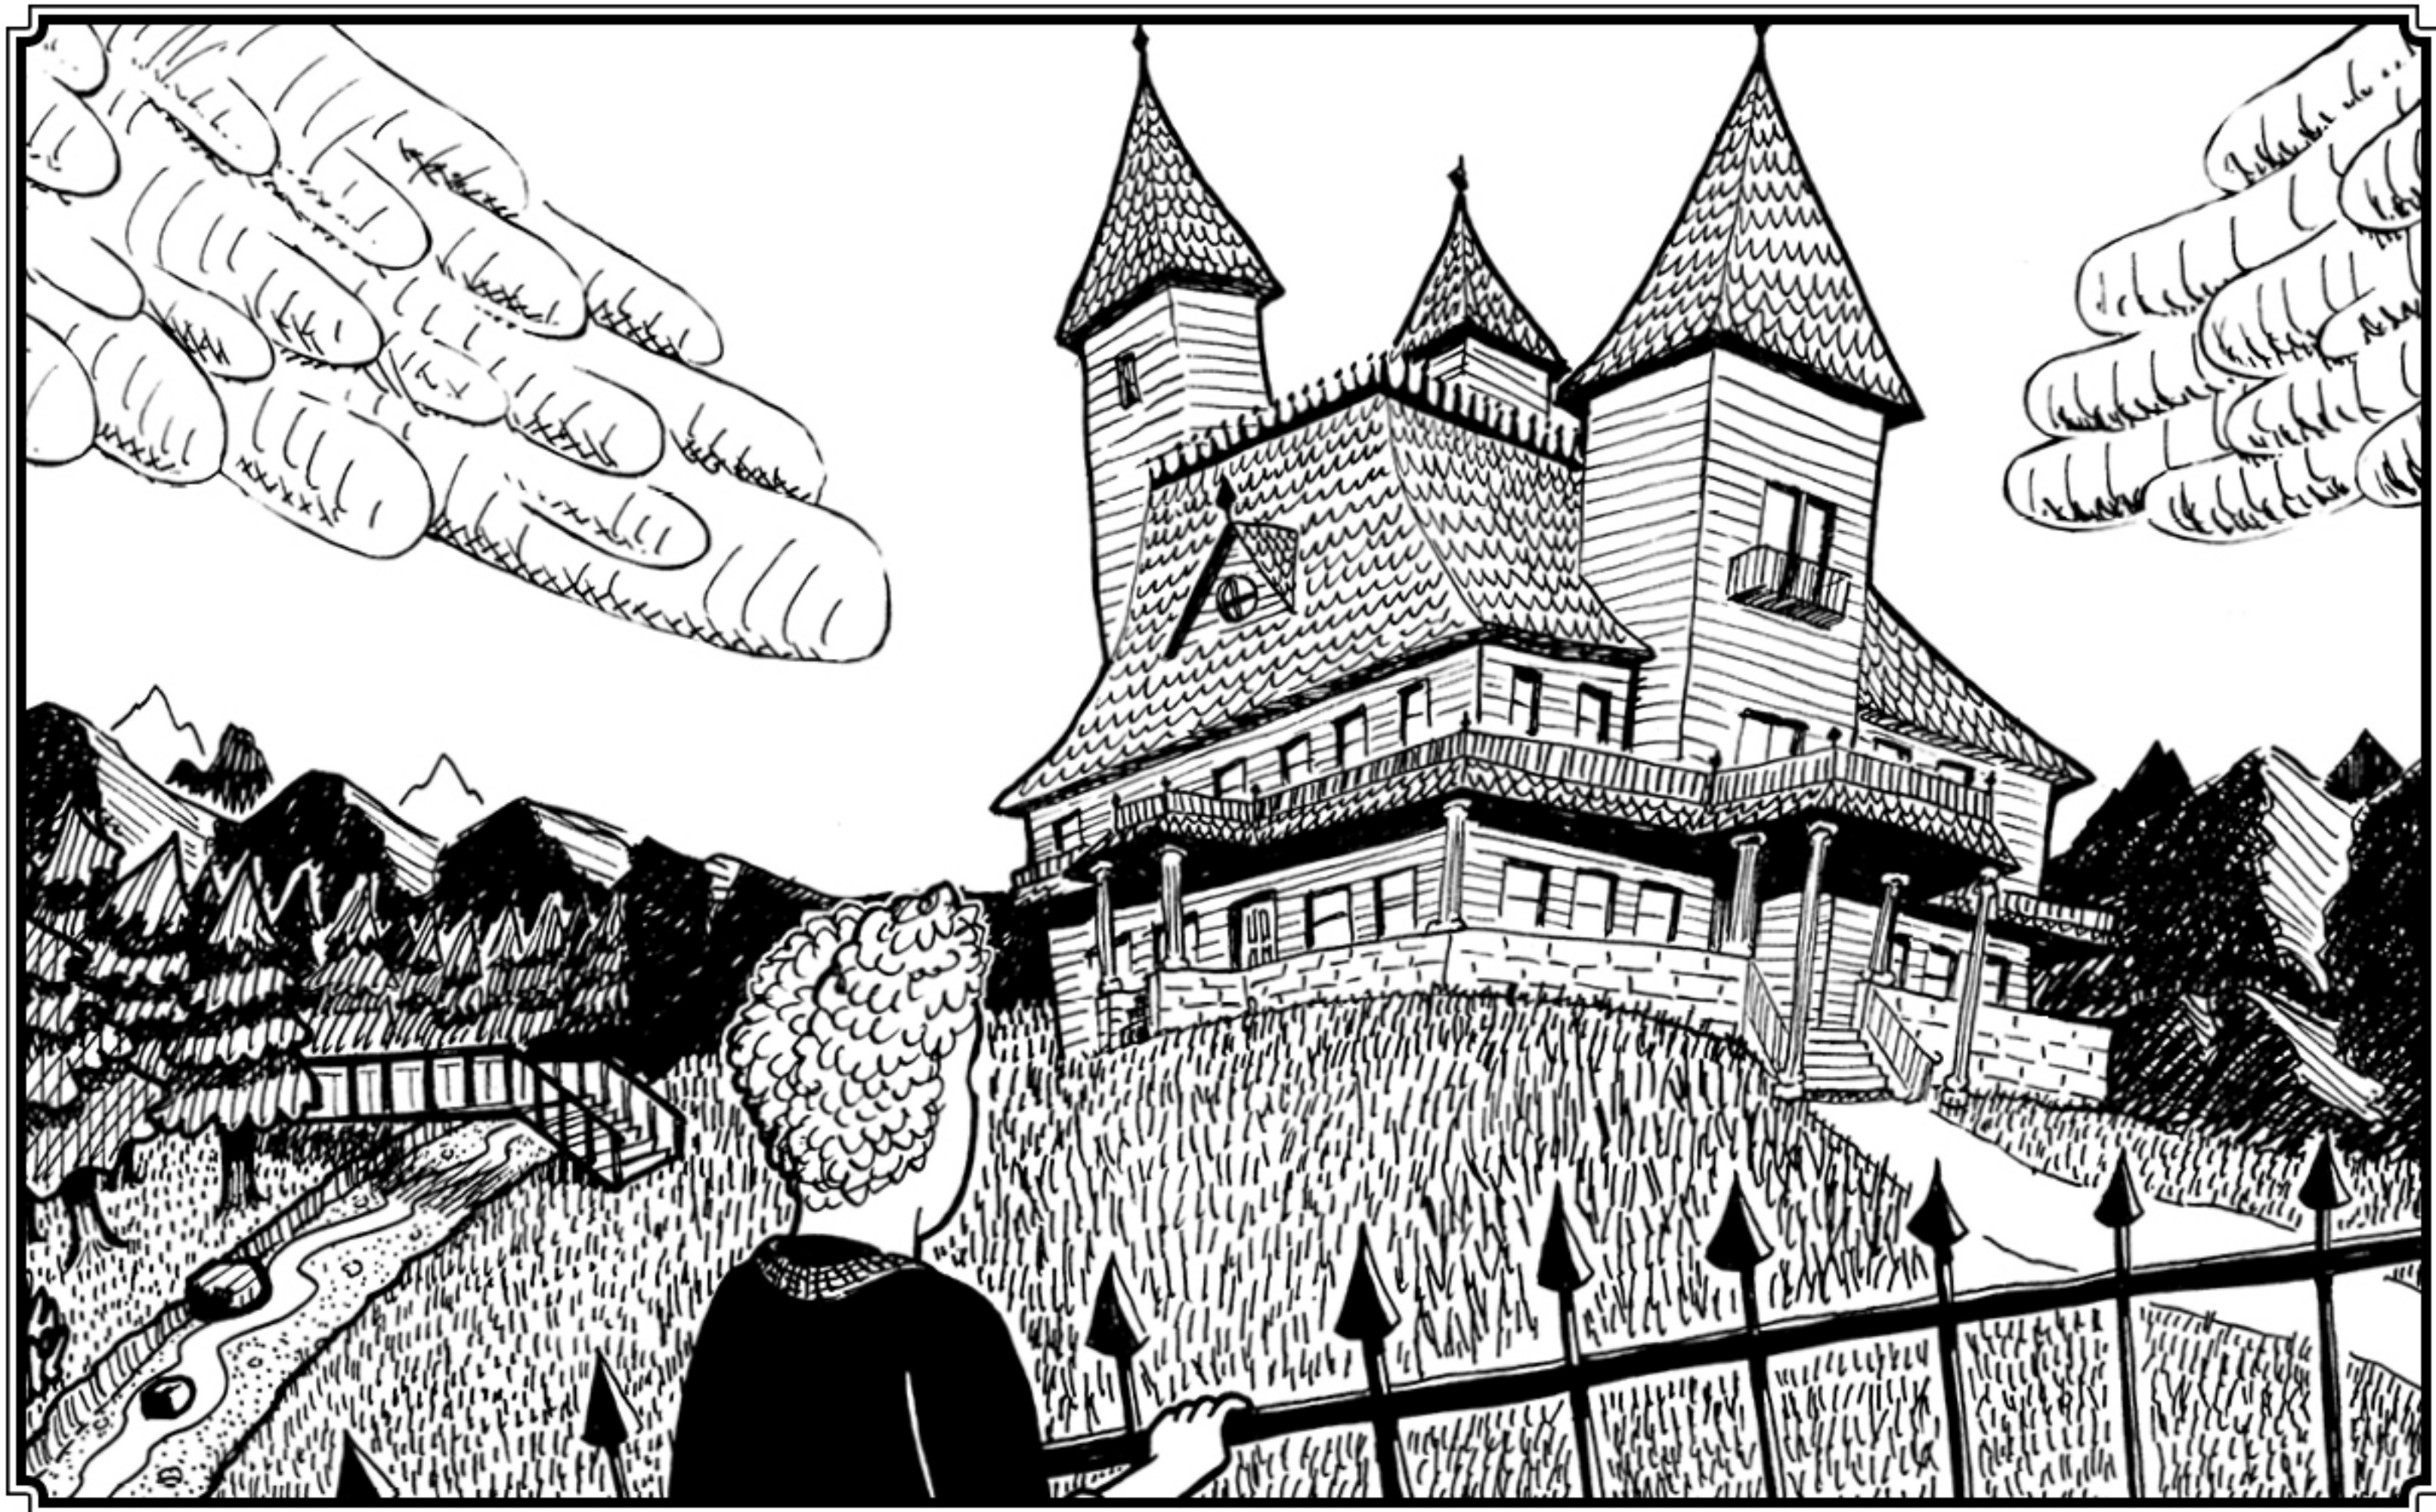

The Baker is too busy.

The Policeman says, "Move along".

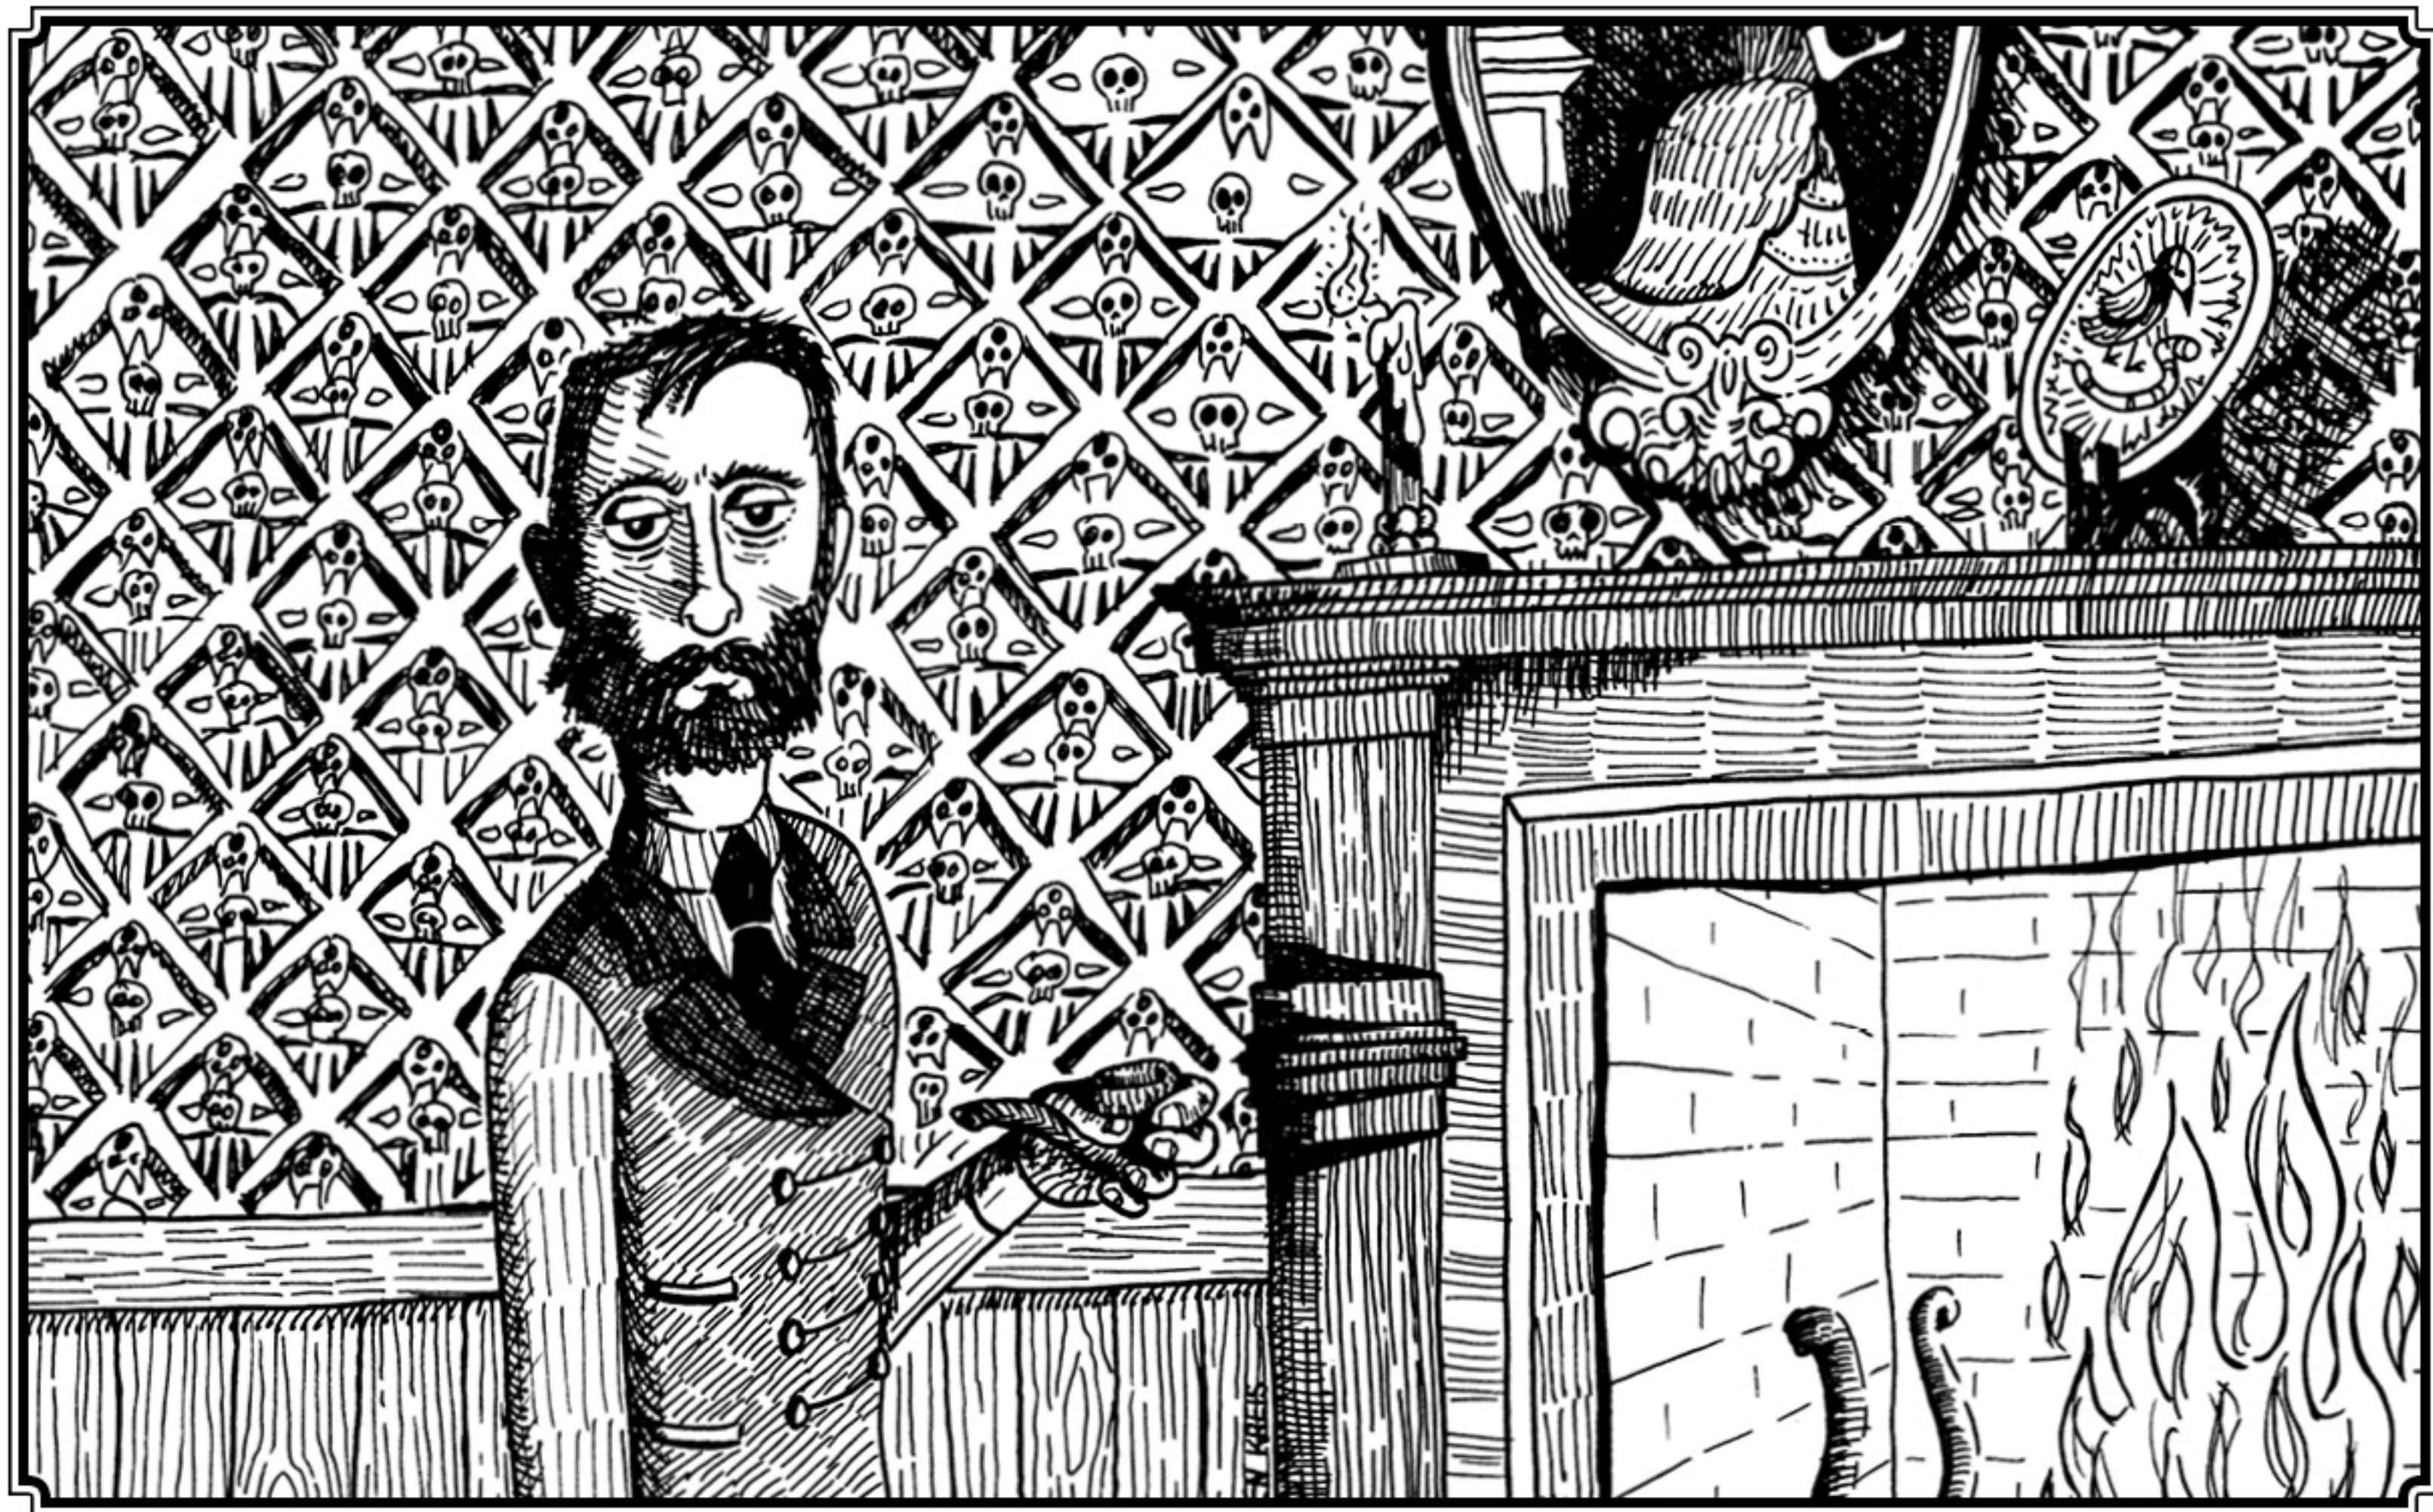

The Cobbler tells Mother about the Orphanage.

It seems so quiet.

Where are all the children?

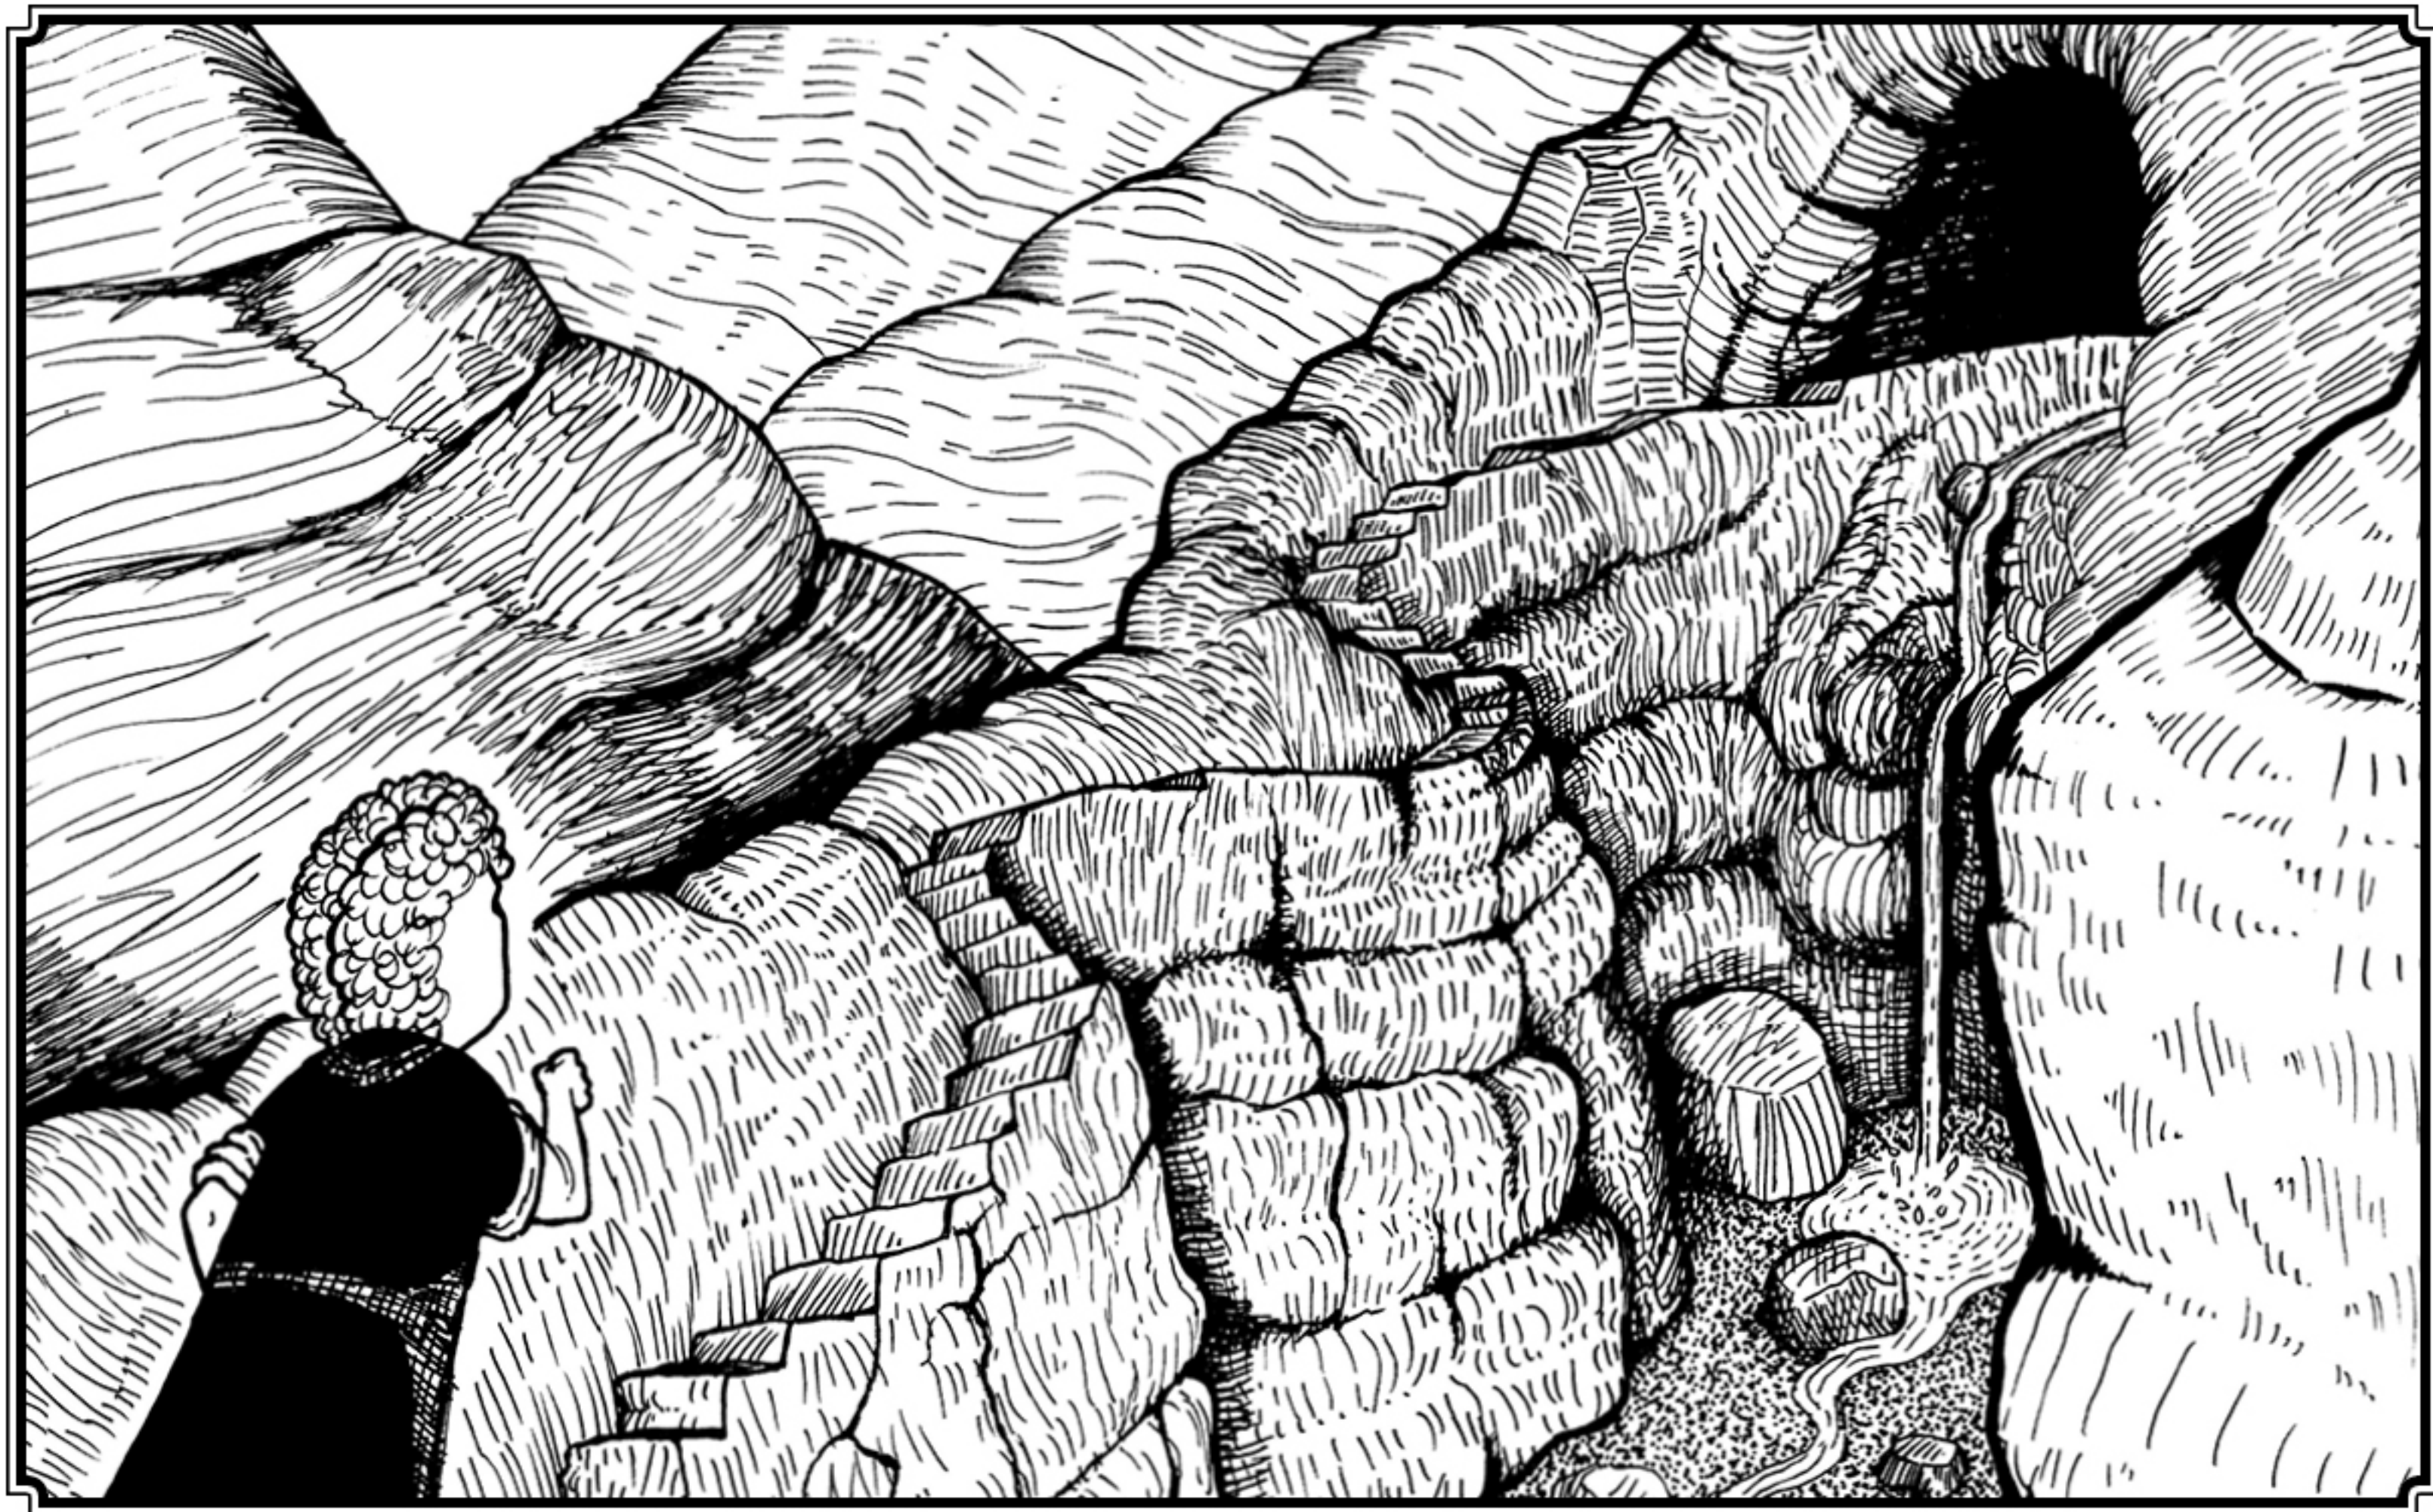

The Director doesn't know where to find Baby.

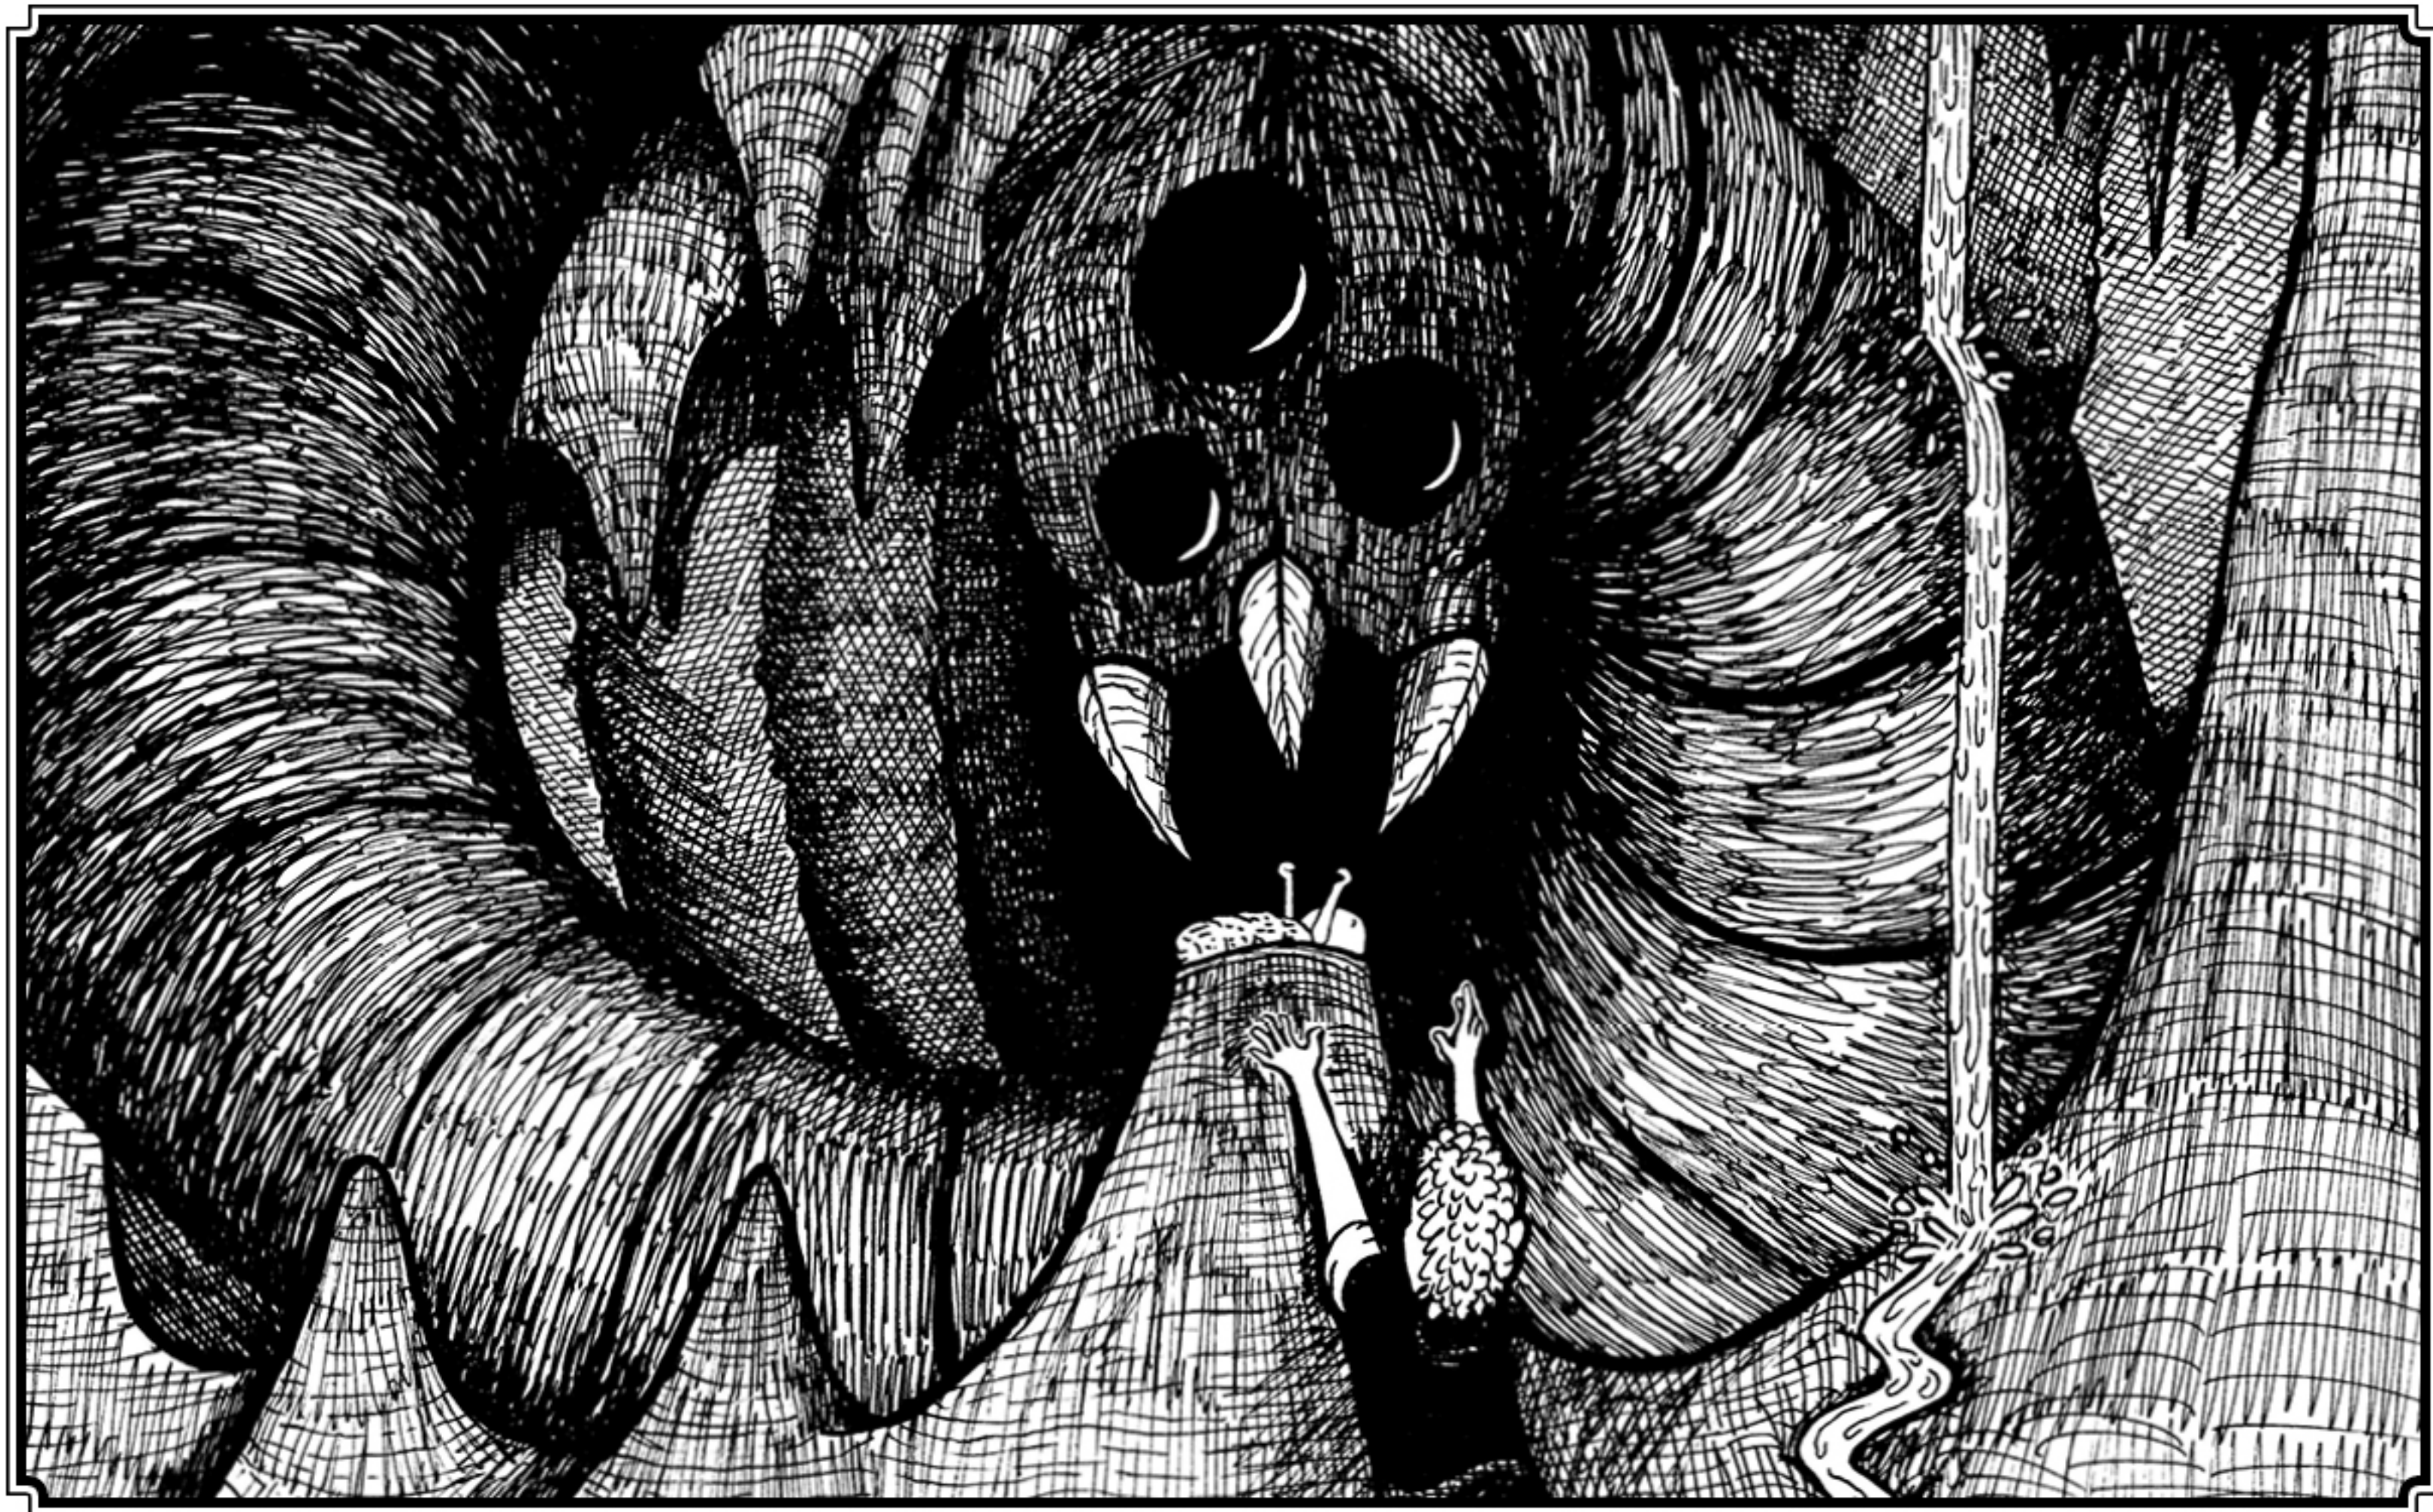

Mother hears the truth.

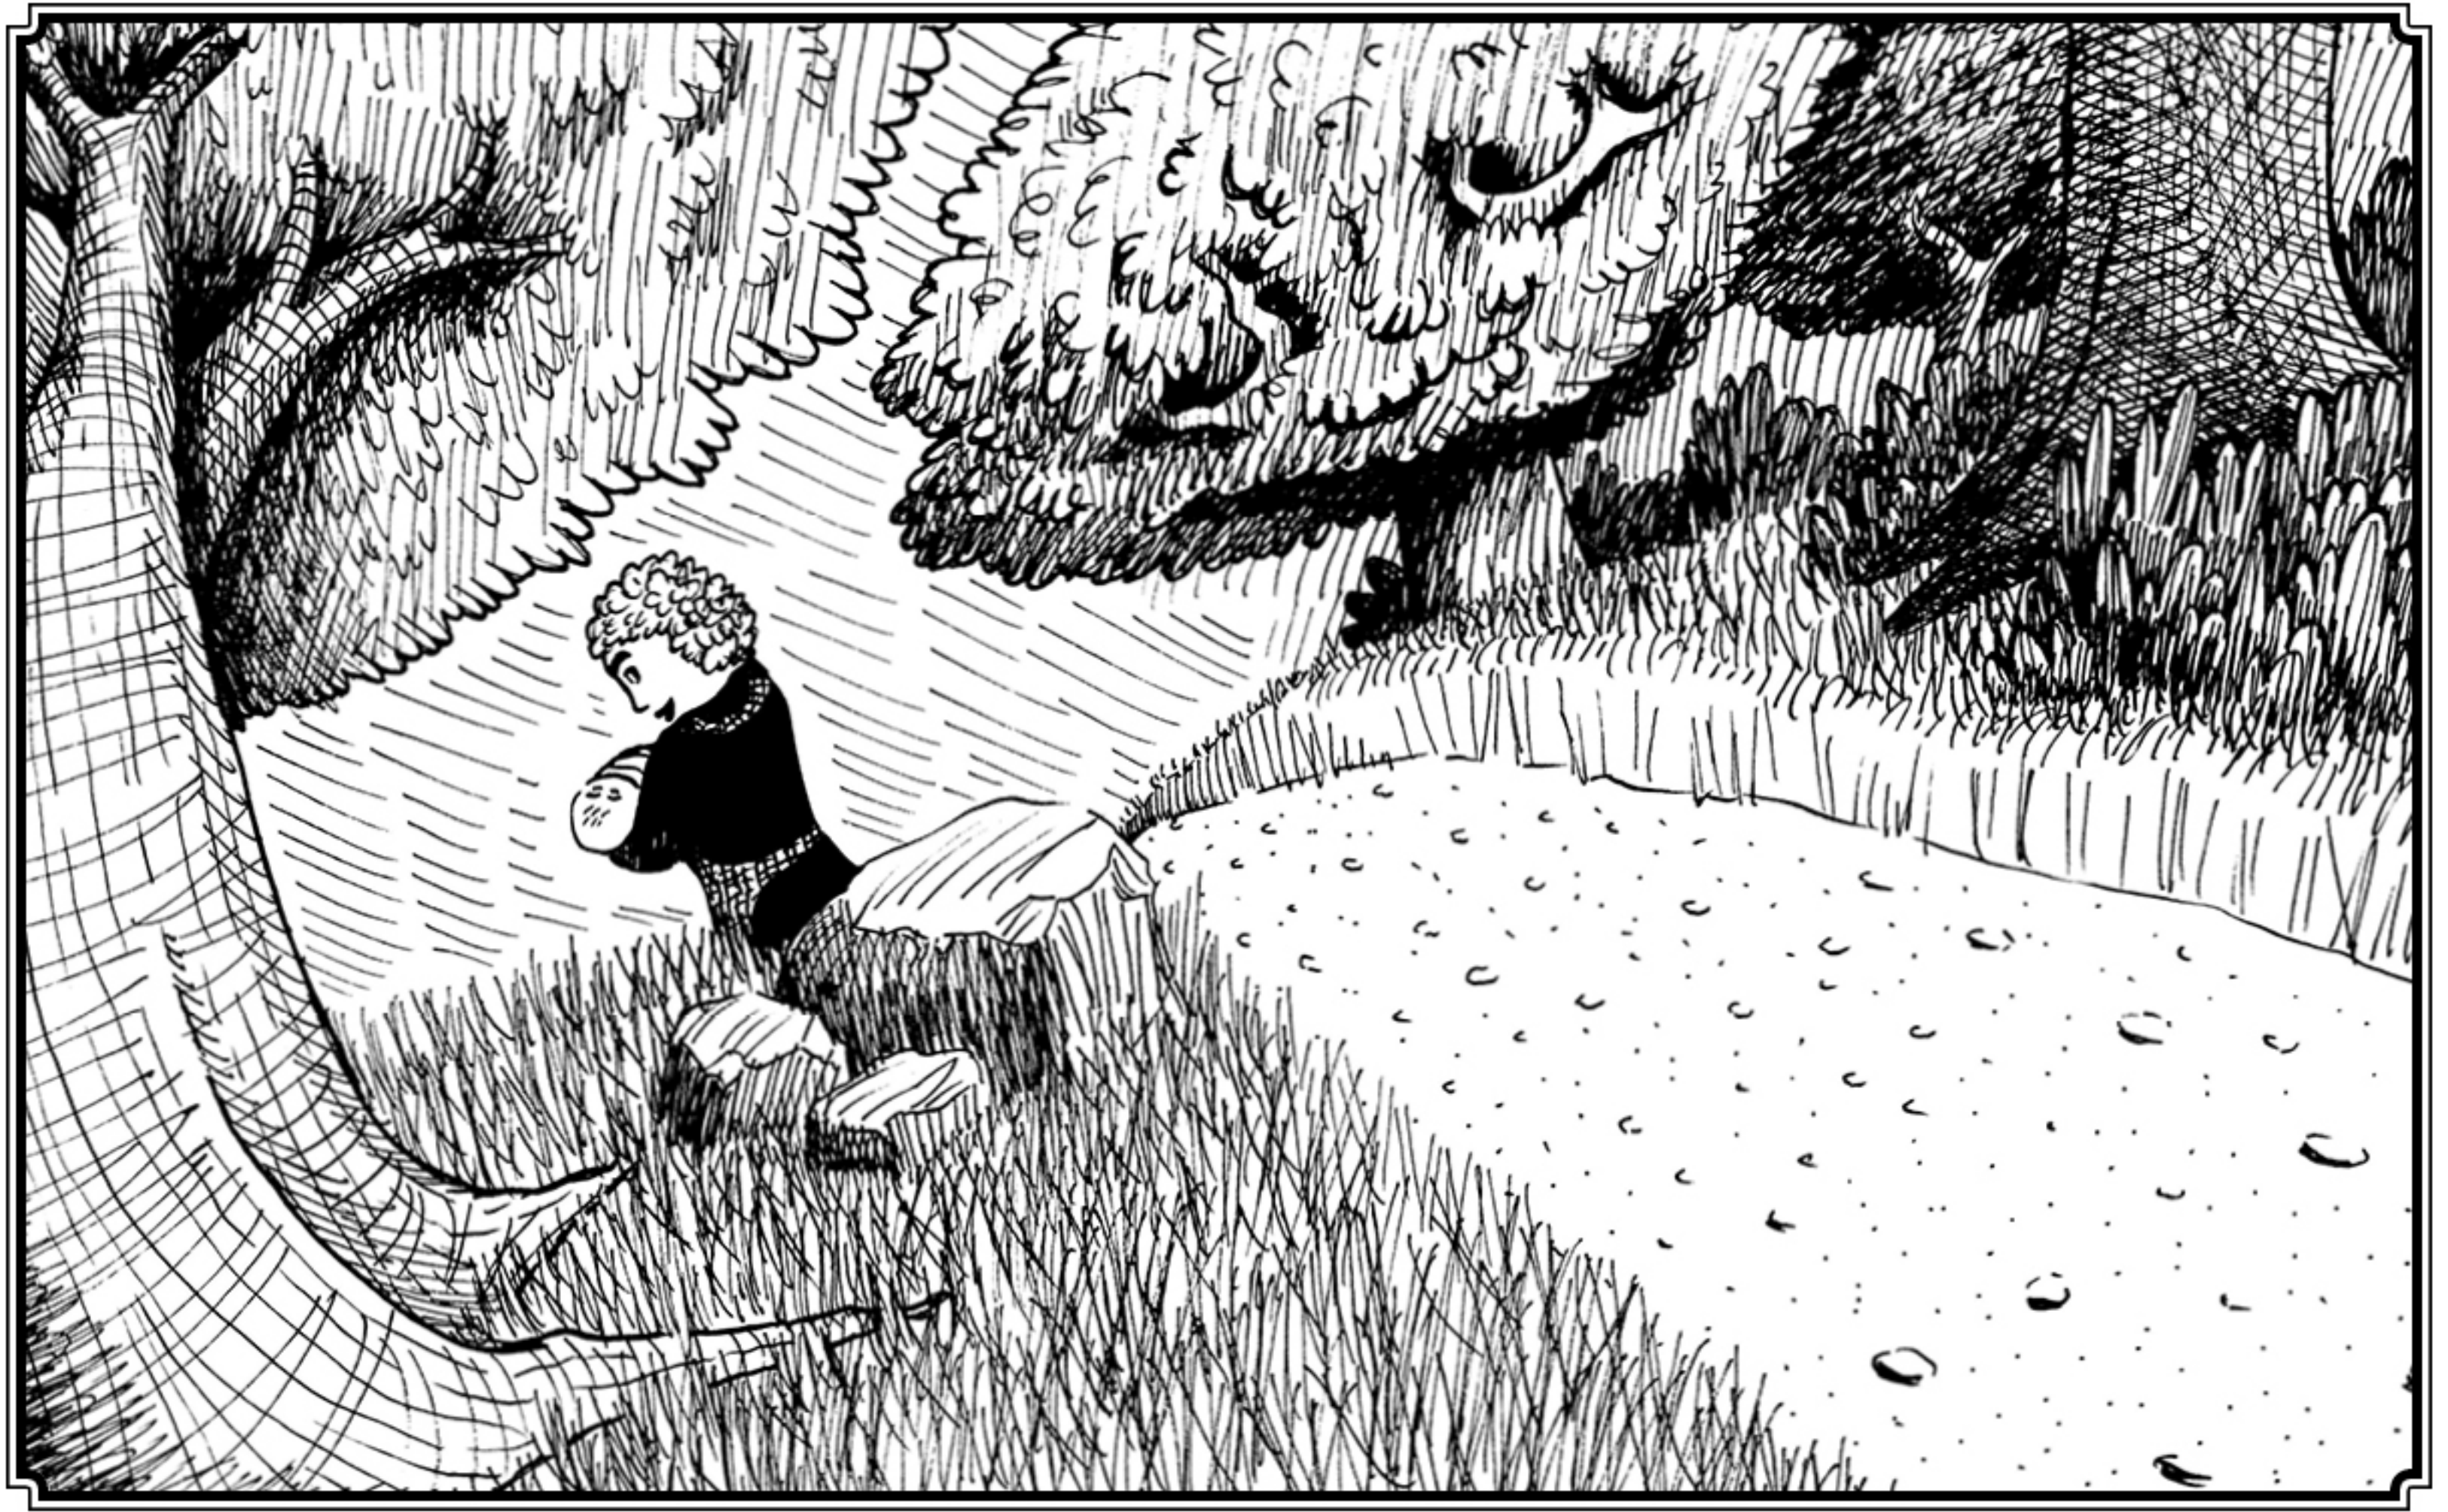

She follows the path.

Why would they bring Baby here?

The hideous creature is about to eat Baby!

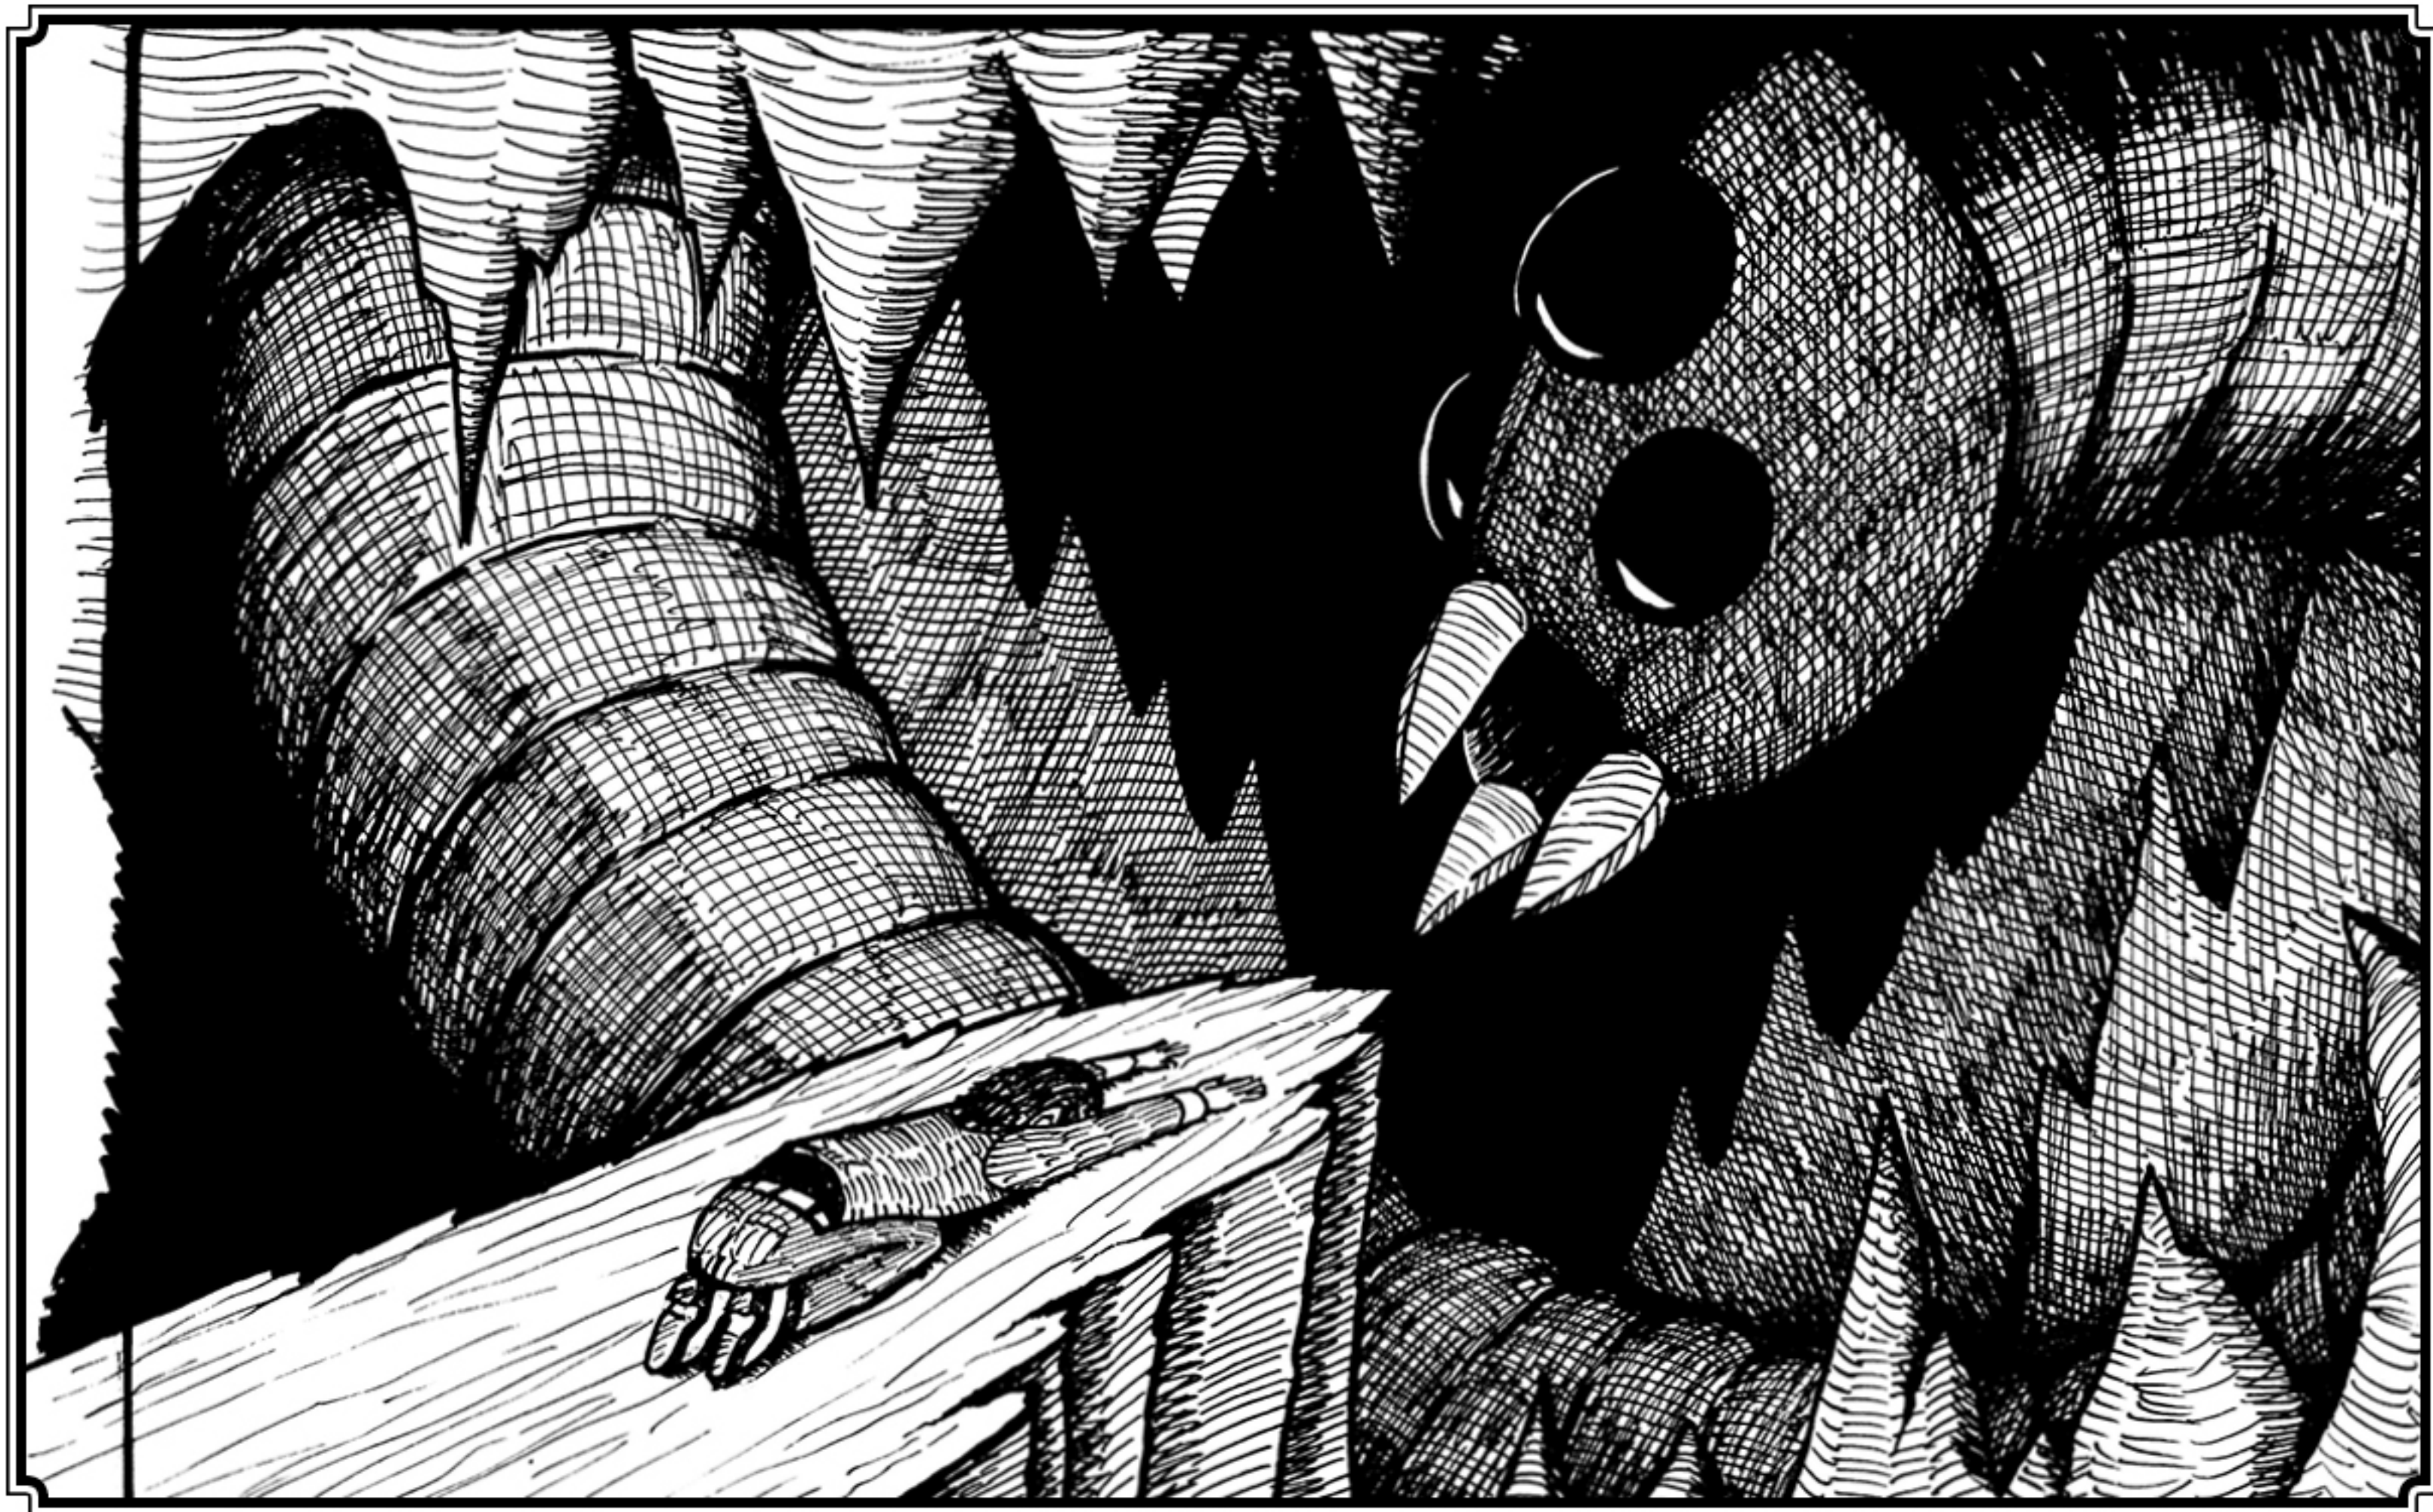

Mother will take Baby far away.

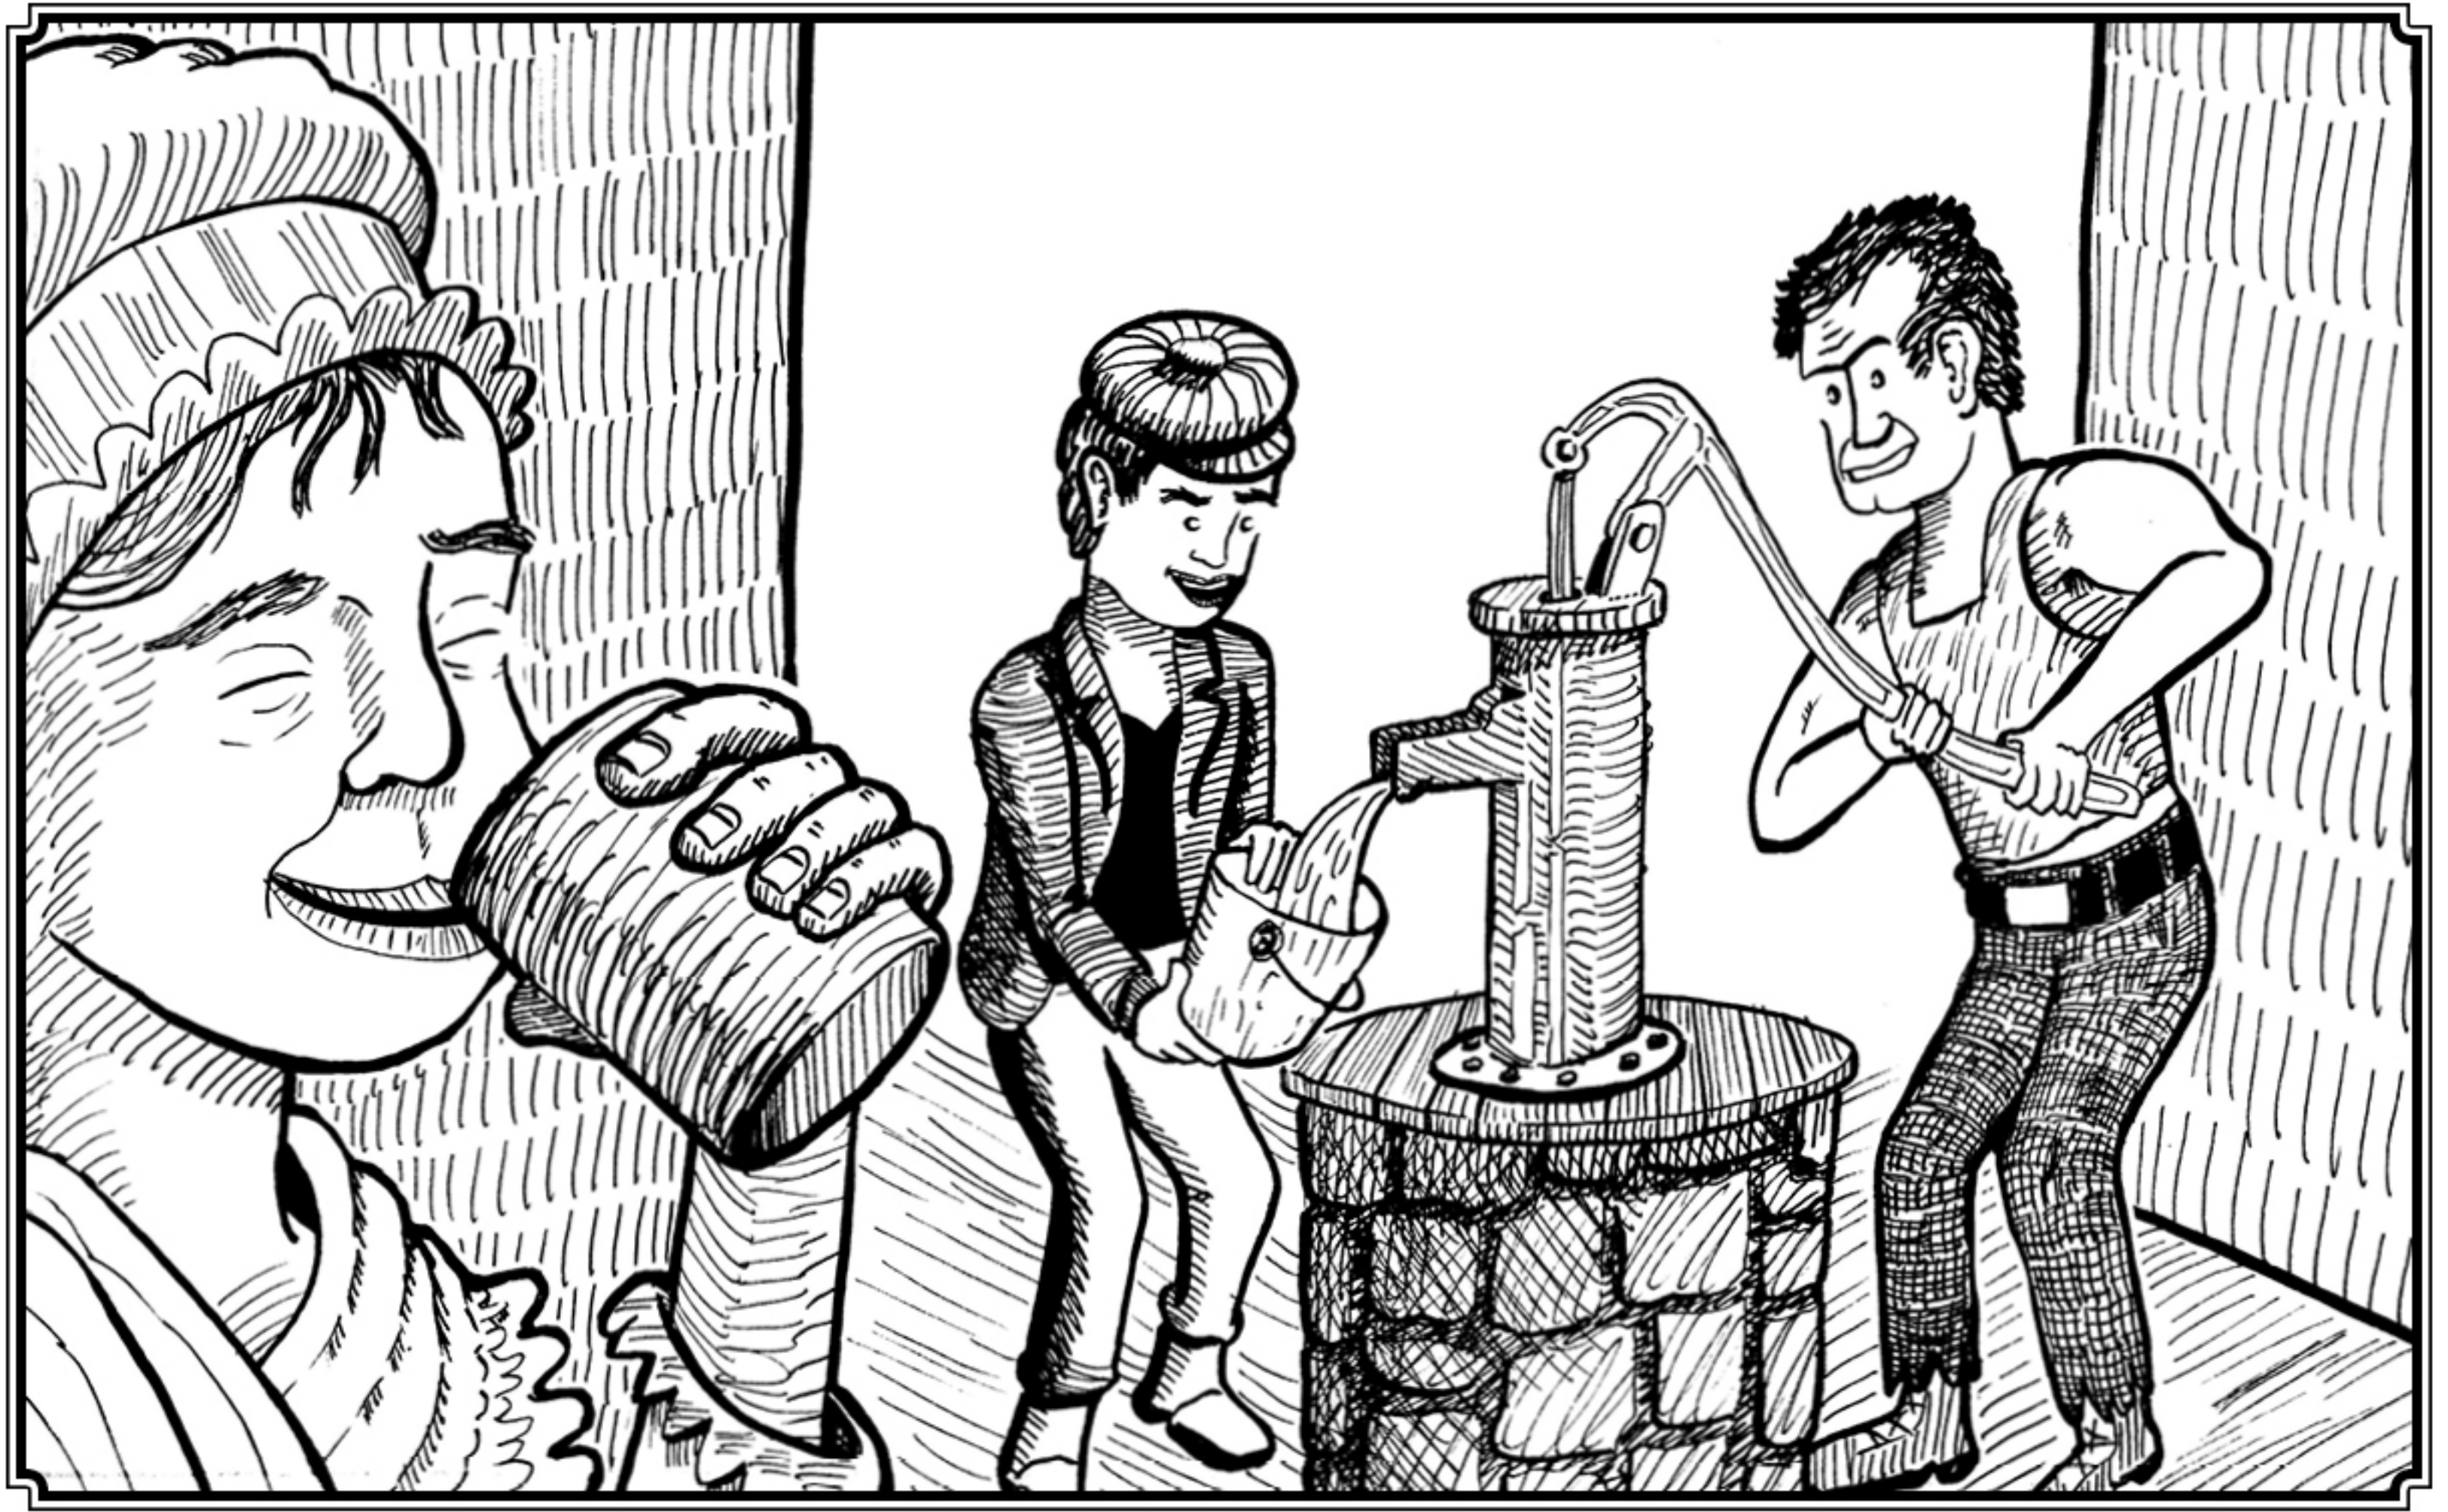

The wells have all gone dry.

The Townspeople demand action!

There are no children left.

The water has returned.

A new Cobbler is needed.

The End

Font by Jason Brubaker. Art and story inspired by Ogdred Weary and the evils civilized people choose to not see. © Copyright 2020 Neb Resik (Ben Kreis). See benkreis.com for more stories.